

The background features a dense, repeating pattern of palm fronds in a muted, olive-green color. The fronds are oriented in various directions, creating a textured, organic feel. At the bottom of the image, there is a solid, bright yellow horizontal bar.

INTRO

As per BBC's Justin Rowlatt "The egg roll is one of the most famous street snacks in the eastern Indian city of Kolkata (Calcutta)".

Calcutta, (Kolkata) for centuries have been famous for its lip smacking street food.

Whilst egg and chicken roll is the most loved street snack, paratha with kosha mangsho (traditional lamb curry) never ceases to impress ones taste buds. Roll Wala aims to gives the west, the best of the east. Other famous snacks will include mashed dried chick peas, skinny fries and masala coke.

The founder - Prabir Chattopadhyay, born and bred in India, but after spending over a decade working with global corporates in London, has decided to pursuit his childhood dream of bringing the best of Calcutta street food to the streets of Britain.